Orangemen's Train Wrecked

Nobody Killed But Many Injured

A large crowd of the citizens of Wetaskiwin were greatly excited at the train wreck. Wednesday evening, when it was learned that the Orange men's special excursion train, which left Red Deer about 7:30, had been wrecked a couple of miles south of Ponoka, and that several of the passengers had been killed and a number injured. It was generally believed, however, that the rumor was greatly exaggerated, as only a couple of the passengers were so seriously injured that it will take any length of time to recover.

The wrecked train consisted of several passenger cars, a baggage car, a tender, the tank and were piled into the ditch. As the train was running about forty miles an hour, it is supposed the first car, which the rails as the track was soft, at this place, water being in the ditch on both sides.

There were about two hundred passengers on board, and when all had escaped with their lives it is a miracle.

As it is possible only 35 or 40 are injured to any extent.

An emergency special of engine and caboose was made up, and the more serious cases were sent to the Wetaskiwin public hospital, while the less serious were promptly attended to by Wetaskiwin physicians. Among the injured are

Mrs. James Conklin, Edmonton, a native of arm, Edmonton, ne-verous shock.

George Conklin, Edmonton, back

wound.

Arthur Davis, son of Mayor Davis, Strathcona, broken bone in leg broken, sprained ankle and nervous shock.

Robt. Fleming, Strathcona, flesh

wound.

Bob Miller, Wetaskiwin, shoulder

dislocated.

Miss Grace Thomas, Wetaskiwin, badly shaken up and injured internally.

Mrs. Chas. Fob, Wetaskiwin, slight injury.

Norman Ward, son of Robt. Ward

Wetaskiwin, sprained ankle.

Reginald Creese, Ponoka, amputated

thumb.

Many exciting stories of the wreck are told by the passengers, but the publicity could not relate how they escaped, or even how they left the debris. Two of the cars are splintered and kindling wood, while the others were piled across the track, with both ends broken off. The cars were broken in two, and the debris of the cars would have rolled into the river and many would have been destroyed.

City News Items

Mrs. Harvey Page, of Stettler, was in the city this week renewing her

AT LAST, A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

"Fruit-a-lives Cured Me!" Says Mr. Borden.

"I was a helpless cripple from Rheumatism for nearly a year. All down the right side, the pain was dreadful and I could not walk. I was treated by two physicians without help. I saw 'Fruit-a-lives' advertised in 'The Telegram' and decided to try them. I had taken one box and I was much better.

When I had taken three boxes, I could walk again and my strength was restored. After taking five boxes, I was entirely well again. The cure of my case by 'Fruit-a-lives' is a miracle. I have tried before all the doctors failed to cure me. 'Fruit-a-lives' cured me."

Mrs. LIZZIE BAXTER,
1 HOMER PLACE, TORONTO, Dec. 15, '98.

In a hundred of other cases, "Fruit-a-lives" has given exactly the same satisfactory results because "Fruit-a-lives" is the greatest blood purifier in the world. The famous, the famous fruit medicine regulates kidneys, liver, bowels and skin, and prevents the accumulation of fat, which is the prime cause of Rheumatism.

"Fruit-a-lives" will positively cure every case of Rheumatism, which is now considered incurable, 50c for $2.50, or trial size, 25c. At all dealers or from Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

SPECIAL TO THE TIMES

Ottawa, July 1.—While Mr. Borden has been in the West, seeking to placate the farmers of that growing country for his opposition to tariff relief for their thrice reciprocal traders, the Canadian States' delegations in favor of other reforms. Until, and, except for, his lieutenants in the East have been busily assuring the castaways, particularly in manufacturing districts, that the party will not be swayed by the protective policy heretofore championed by Mr. Borden, and that there is no danger of any radical projects being really carried out by Mr. Borden should he attain power.

For instance, at the meeting of the Canadian Conservative Association at Uxbridge, last week, Major Samuel Sharpe, M.P., was renominated as the federal candidate. In view of the fact that Major J. A. Currie, M.P., informed the convention that with the exception of the few members of office, "high, aristocratic and honest" were in favor for Mr. J. A. Sharpe, the comments of that gentleman have special significance.

And this is what Mr. Sharpe told the association. According to Mr. Borden would not be stampeded to the West to deserting any of the traditions of the Conservative party, he assailed the British Government and the Canadian Government, both of which, he said, for Mr. J. A. Sharpe, were in favor of Mr. J. A. Sharpe, the comments of that gentleman have special significance.

And this is what Mr. Sharpe told the association. According to Mr. Borden would not be stampeded to the West to deserting any of the traditions of the Conservative party, he assailed the British Government and the Canadian Government, both of which, he said, for Mr. J. A. Sharpe, the comments of that gentleman have special significance.

There was another significant feature of this Conservative Association, which may impress the insignificance of the anti-reciprocity contention that the tariff relief offered to the farmers by the Government will not secure the advantages for them which they think. Mr. A. E. Lancashire, one of the bitterest of the anti-city campaigners, let the pig out of the sack. He frankly intimated that the Government's reciprocity trade policy would be a good thing for the people of the West, and that, after all, that he was to go to get better prices for his products the farmers' loyalty will be tested. "The policy," he declared, "of placing the interests of the pockets of the people." The suggestion that the patriotism of the West will be tested, was not, however, less than insulting, coming as it does from eastern financial and corporate interests which trade extensively themselves in the United States. The whole thing, in other words, the entire party of the British interests who are dominating the opposition to reciprocity and seeking to use Mr. Borden.

A further interesting incident of the North Ontario Association, in view of Mr. Borden's western trials of Conservative obstruction in Parliament, was the assurance of his Lieutenant that "we will continue to obstruct the whole thing, and fight till the last ditch," when the House meets again on July 1.

In spite of the tactics adopted to defeat it public sentiment in favor of the Government policy of tariff relief is growing steadily, in the West, as well as in the East. The anti-reciprocity partisans in the East resent the efforts made by the anti-reciprocity interests to set one part of Canada against another. The appeals to the East, not to be dominated by the West, have met with little success. The farmers and artisans have not been deceived by it. They recognize that it is the subterfuge of selfish monied interests concerned only in looking after themselves. They realize that the policy first advanced by the great west, and made possible by the successful negotiations of Hon. Messrs. Fisher and Borden, was a patriotic and a sectional policy but one calculated to contribute greatly to the increased prosperity of the whole country, and particularly of the great masses of the people. They note that the Opposition, from the party corporations and the dislocates growth at the American Senate investigation, where it was shown that the United States trusts and combines were financing the anti-reciprocity campaign, had done their best to discredit the West and the West interests. In all the eastern provinces, enthusiastic meetings of farmers and artisans have been held, enthusiastically endorsing the Government's proposals. Hon. A. G. Miller, a member of the Senate, was won over to the cause this week, and, with a pandemonium of applause when, as an answer to the defection of eighteen Liberals of the millionaire class in Toronto, he declared that never in his life had the Liberal flag meant as much to him as it did now, leading the battle to free trade in natural products.

Nearly half of this land lies south of latitude 54 degrees. After this survey, will be probably cover the whole of the present limits of the province and extend along the routes proposed for the Hudson Bay railway. In this district wheat has been grown at the 55 parallel of latitude. Westward the wheat limit is shown to reach the 56 parallel in the Yukon and in the unnamed country north of Alberta.

Besides the 143,000,000 acres already surveyed there are 200,000,000 acres of which are climatically suitable

MARRIED

PAULINE CARPENTER—At the Methodist church, by Rev. A. J. Ahl,中俄, on Monday, July 1st.

1911, John Albert Paulin, all of Orpha Lucia Carpenter, all of Wetaskiwin.

MOORE—BEASLEY—At Emmanuel church of England on Friday last a quiet wedding took place, when Rev. Dr. Coard, officiated. Mr. Beasley, of Stretford, South London, and until recently teacher at Amisk public school, in this province, was married to Mr. James Hancey Moore, farmer, of Amisk, and formerly of Crapaud, Prince Edward Island. The bride, Rev. Dr. Coard, officiated. Mrs. Calbeck, of Halsbury attended the bride. The happy couple left for Amisk on the 18th instant.

BORN

CRANE—In Wetaskiwin, on the 12th inst., to Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Crane, a son.

Bridgewater, Conn., July 11.—Blame fire, probably a worse, were crushed out in an instant, and probably, as many persons frightened when seen by today "Federal Express" running from Washington, D.C., to Boston, over the New York-New Haven and Hartford lines, were buried over a viaduct here by an open switch.

Fire broke out in the wreckage but the Bridgeport fire department quickly put it out and the men left assistance to rescue the injured.

The bridge was damaged by the Duke of Sutherland near Clyde, a city miles north of Edmonton. The bridge was being prepared to ready-made farms for the Scotch settlers in the west.

Fire expects to bring over here next year. He will be here in the fall of this year. His plan on stay there. Should this venture prove a success he and others in England will go into this plan of providing ready-made farms of their tenants on a larger scale in the west.
